Reorganization of a state

2182. SHRI MOTIUR RAHMAN: Will the PRIME MINISTER be pleased to state:

(a) the role played by the Central Government in reorganization of a State;

(b) in what manner Government staff is distributed between the existing State and the newly created State;

(c) the issues pertaining to distribution of staff between Madhya Pradesh and Chhattisgarh which are yet to be finally settled;

(d) the details of representation received from aggrieved officers; and

(e) the action being taken in the matter?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF PERSONNEL, PUBLIC GRIEVANCES AND PENSIONS (SHRI SURESH PACHOURI): (a) to (e) The State Reorganisation Acts of Uttar Pradesh, Madhya Pradesh and Bihar have been enacted by the Parliament in the year 2000. As per part VIII of these Acts, every person who was serving in the States of Uttar Pradesh, Madhya Pradesh and Bihar immediately before the day of existence of the new successor States should be finally allotted to either of the successor States, namely, Uttar Pradesh and Uttaranchal, Madhya Pradesh and Chhattisgarh, Bihar and Jharkhand, by the Central Government.

The Central Government constituted State Advisory Committees for the purpose of distribution of staff between the successor States of madhya Pradesh/Chhattisgarh, Bihar/Jharkhand and Uttar Pradesh/ Uttaranchal. State Advisory Committees, thus constituted were headed by retired Civil Servants of the rank of Chief Secretary.

The State Advisory Committees after going through details of sanctioned posts, category-wise, cadre-wise and grade-wise finalized the distribution of posts between the successor States keeping in view the administrative structure of the new successor States and their work requirement.

The work relating to the final allocation of all the 1,62,461 State service personnel other than All India services to the successor States of Madhya Pradesh/Chhattisgarh has been completed. Some personnel dissatisfied with their allocation orders, approached various benches of Hon'ble High Courts of Madhya Pradesh and Chhattisgarh. The Central Government is taking action as per the directives of the High Courts.
